

I am a Certified Medical Assistant with 24 years experience. I strongly believe that medical assistants are trained and knowledgeable in giving of injections and dispensing medications under a doctor's supervision. It is part of our educational process and in most states falls under our scope of practice. Medical Assistants should be allowed to perform all of the duties they are trained to do. Please expedite the passage of this bill.

Sincerely,

Sandra L Duzal, CMA (AAMA)